CT JCI Senate Social and Membership Meeting

The meal is pot-luck (please bring a dish to share) and the beverages are BYOB!

Location: Home of Ralph Lockman and Sandy Samoncik, 201 Valley View Dr, Meriden. 203-639-0820

RSVP by March 10th : Brenda DiCarlo, 860-485-1503 or brendadicarlo@sbcglobal.net

Please let me know what you plan to bring so we can round out the offerings.

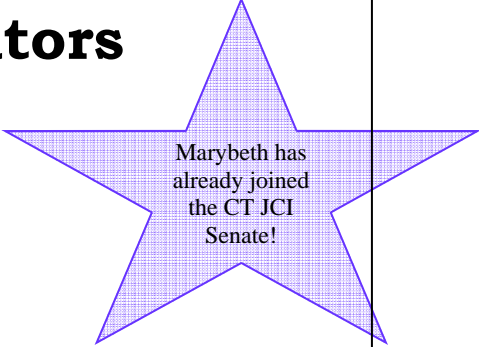

Although I'd like to see everyone at the meeting, if schedules don't permit please feel free to come later for the socializing. Guests welcome.

There are two priority items on the meeting agenda: Discussion on the nomination of officers for the 2008-2009 year and the program for our May election meeting, including budget transfers to revamp the hospitality program.

Bowl to Benefit Umbrella, helps raise awareness and much needed funds for victims and their children, of domestic violence

Saturday, March 8

Bowling starts at 3:30, please arrive at 3:00

Each bowler is asked to raise as much as possible by asking friends, relatives, co-workers and even strangers to make a donation of 3 to 5 dollars. If you can't bowl, you can donate!

Historically the CT JCI Senate has fielded 2 teams of 4 persons each—we need some new participants this year! There is a lounge and pizza restaurant in the bowling alley and we can make it a fun day and early evening.

Contact Larry Thomson at 203 736 2601 (w) or 203 734 4719 (h) or by e-mail at lthomson@bghealth.org. Please include your phone number and mailing address.

Dinner Social currently in the planning stages for Saturday night, February 23—details to be announced via email. Mark your calendar!
